MANY INJURED IN MOTOR ACCIDENTS

Unusual Number of Automobile Mishaps Send Many to Hospital.

CRASH ON PIKE DETOUR

An unusual number of automobile accidents occurred in Lower Merion and Narberth the past week. Several of the principals were sent to the hospital for treatment but none of the accidents resulted fatally.

One of the accidents occurred in Narberth Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Joseph Boldi, 215 Haverford avenue, Narberth, going south on Narberth avenue, hit Robert Haigh, 5 years old, of 319 Narberth avenue, at the intersection of Price avenue. The boy was rushed to Dr. White for treatment and it was found that he was suffering contusions and cuts. His condition was uncertain.

Boldi was arrested and held in $300 bail for further hearing on October 6.

A smashup occurred in Bala at Conshohocken avenue and St. Asaph road Saturday at 6 P. M Albert Weiss, who gave his address as 1636 North Sixteenth street, Philadelphia, driving a chassis, hit a touring car driven by Roy F. Gall, of Merion.

Bremer Yocum, who was riding with Weiss, suffered a disclocated shoulder and a fractured arm and Roy Gall, Jr., who was in the other car with his father, received a bad cut on the head. They were treated by Dr. Joseph M. Gerhart, Jr., of Cynwyd.

Weiss was also held in $300 bail for a further hearing.

One of the smashups was due to the crowded condition of Wynnewood road which is being used as a detour for Lincoln Highway traffic between Ardmore and Philadelphia, while the Lancaster pike is being widened by the State Highway Department.

J. W. Bowles, of 2525 Fairview avenue, Pittsburgh, accompanied by his family and friends, was driving west on Wynnewood road behind one of the Lancaster avenue busses Monday noon. At Bowman avenue, Merion, he attempted to pass the bus. A truck, driven by Charles R. Harris, colored, approached from the opposite direction. The narrowness of the road prevented clearance. The truck struck the Bowles car and his machine sideswiped the bus.

NARBERTH OFFICER

First to Reach Sunken Submarine Last Week.

The U. S. S. Putnam, Commander C. H. Shaw, of Avon ,road commanding, was the first to go in search of the unfortuate S-51. It was the searching seaplane detailed for use in the destroyer's experiments in torpedo firing that discovered the location of the S-51.

In describing the search, Commander Shaw wrote home:

"I was roused about quarter of five with news that we were wanted to go and search for a sunken submarine somewhere around Block Island. Of course there was liberty party ashore, only two officers on board, the rest away. We hustled around and went along without them in less than an hour.

"We had the bearings reported by the City of Rome and she said there was an oil slick. We found a buoy made of life preservers that we thought was a clue until we examined and found old sea growth on it. The S-1 came along after a bit and our own torpedo chasing plane came out. I went east, S-1 went west and we searched around. The plane seemed to have something, so we followed him and S-1 and another sub found bubbles and a little oil. S-1 anchored on the spot and we returned to Newport to get our crew and came along to New Haven.

"I got my first look at the Sunday New York papers just now. I find I'm quoted quite a lot in the Herald about the S-51. I didn't talk to anybody about whether the S-51 crew were living or not because of air bubbles coming up. It all made out of whole cloth except of course the fact that I went out in the Putnam."

Boyd to Be Candidate for Toga "Too Early to Talk," Says Stites

One of the tightest political fights that Montgomery county has ever witnessed may take place next May when the Republicans will nominate a State Senator in the spring primaries. The term of Senator Flecher W. Stites, of Narberth, expires next year, and both Mr. Stites and former State Senator James S. Boyd, of Norristown, have signified their intentions of running for the office.

Mr. Boyd has yet made no public statement that he will run but definite announcement that he would be in the race was made this week by the Norristown Times-Herald, the organization paper at the county seat.

"Unmistakable political signs, supported by the opinions of influential political leaders, enable us to state unqualifiedly that Mr Boyd will be a candidate for the nomination in the spring primaries," declares the Times-Herold.

Reached at his home in Narberth last night, Senator Stites was asked if he had any comment to make on this announcement.

"None at all," he declared. "I expect to run but it is too early yet to talk politics."

A little over six months ago Mr Boyd began to appear with great regularity at public gatherings and community functions up Norristown way and rumors forthwith started that he was contemplating entering the race for the Senatorial toga. No definite declaration could be secured from him, however, that he would run. The announcement now that he will run is regarded in some quarters as a "feeler." It is not definite enough to commit the former Senator and yet it has delightful possibilities as an information getter

Should Stites and Boyd finally come to grips in a struggle for the Montgomery Senatorship an interesting situation would result Senator Stites, who was assisted to office by the Johnson county machine, has not always been a "regular" in his affiliations. This was notably so a year or so ago when he was considered leader of the insurgent Pinchot forces at the State capital. Yet in spite of this there has been some doubt that the Johnson forces would refuse their support to the former Narberth burgess in his ambitions for a second term.

Stites is regarded as having a strong independent backing in the county and political observers have expressed doubt that the machine would care to fight him. This doubt has become more pronounced as rumors of conciliatory efforts from both camps have become current. Should Stites and Boyd therefore come together it

STATE FEDERATION MEETS NEXT WEEK

Community Club Wants Members to Attend.

The annual meeting of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women at Wilkes-Barre October 5-9, seems to mean little to members of the Narberth Community Club; whereas it is, in fact, of great importance, for it is through the federations, county, State or national, that our local efforts are correlated, that we give and get mutual help and inspiration.

The program of this meeting is most promising of mental stimulus on one hand and entertainment on the other, from the reception on Monday night to the "pilgrimage" on Friday. For those interested in the mechanics of club work there are the reports of officers and committees. Each department of the Federation has a program, either at some general session or at a luncheon. The County Federation luncheon and the Club Institutes luncheon are in charge of our friend and neighbor, Mrs. Richard J. Hamilton, president of the Montgomery County Federation. Mrs. Hamilton is also to speak at the Literary Breakfast on Thursday. There will be music at every session and at least three exhibitions of various sorts for those artistically inclined. Dr. George E. Vincent, president of the Rockefeller Foundation, and Dr. Francis B. Haas, State Superintendent of Schools, are among the many speakers from outside the Federation.

There is opportunity for six members of the Narberth Community Club, three delegates and three alternates to go with its president as official representatives. Here is an opportunity to help your club and add to your storehouse of pleasant memories. How about our Juniors? Wednesday and Thursday, October 7 and 8, are planned especially for them. If 250 women attend this meeting, a rebate of half the return fare will be given to all. If you can go, get word to Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, Overbrook 5222, as soon as possible in order to receive your credentials.

D. A. R. TO MEET

The Dr. Benjamin Rush Chapter of Narberth Daughters of the American Revolution will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles M. Irwin, 130 Linwood avenue, Ardmore, Saturday, October 10, at 2.30. All members of the chapter are requested to attend the opening meeting of the year, as the final plans for the annual State conference to be held in Philadelphia the week of November 1 will be discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Noel Butler, of Essex avenue, are on a trip to Galveston, Texas, made via the Mallory Line from New York.

FORD CAR IS WON BY NARBERTH MAN

J. V. Carey, of Woodside Avenue, Held the Lucky Ticket.

As a fitting climax to two nights of fun and merriment at the Narberth Country Fair, President Bill Evans, of the Narberth Tennis Association, dipped his hand into a full barrel of coupons and drew out the name of J. V. Carey, who thereby became the lucky owner of a 1926 model Ford touring car. The other prizes, which were drawn immediately after, were won as follows:

Pittsburgh water heater, won by A. G. McCarty, Cynwyd, Pa.; string of pearls, won by Howard V. Whitney, Narberth, Pa.; one ton of coal, won by Eleanor Carpenter, Cynwyd, Pa.; one ton of coal, won by Wallace Boileau, Narberth, Pa.; tennis racket, won by Mrs. Texter, Narberth, Pa.; Savill spigots, won by Michael Kairsh, Eighth and Locust streets, Philadelphia.

This year's fair can easily be called one of the most successful ever held. Everybody who took an active interest worked early, late and hard. As a result it was a complete success as everyone who attended can testify.

The Charleston Ramblers were a surprise and made a hit. The transformation of the club house into a cabaret with a regular jazz band, dancing and specialty numbers was a feature that will be talked about for a long time to come. The band, the waitresses, the cashier, the bouncer and above all the kitchen mechanic who proved to be no mean dancer himself, all deserved the success that was theirs.

The various booths did a thriving business. Everyone on the grounds seemed to be carrying a prize of some kind—a box of Wilbur Buds, a beautiful fitted bag, a blanket, a pieces of aluminum ware or a basket of groceries. Future years will probably bring bigger fairs and biggers crowds but no one will have any more fun and enjoyment than seemed to be the lot of everyone who attended this year.

AFTER NEW MEMBERS

A drive for new contributing memberships in the Narberth Fire Company is under way. The cards are $3 each and the membership of every family in the community is necessary for the complete success of the work of the company.

This contribution is not only a civic duty and a financial necessity to the company, but is a source of moral support to the volunteers. Membership information may be secured at the post office.

The home of Mr. Carroll Downes, at 315 Woodside avenue, has been rented by Dr. C. T. Faries, who will occupy it until the completion of his new home in Wynnewood.

UP IN ARMS OVER PROPOSED BUS LINE

Merion and Wynnewood People Protest Phila. Transit Application.

MAY KILL APPLICATION

Vigorous protest has developed against the bus line which the Philadelphia Suburban Transit Company proposes to establish through Merion and Wynnewood. Residents of those communities are up in arms over the proposed route and spent the week getting in touch with proper authorities to block it.

Opposition to the new line was also voiced by the Montgomery Bus Company, which operates the Lancaster avenue buses. This combined with the protest of the property owners and the stand of the Lower Merion commission against more buses will probably cause the Public Service Commission to kill the application for the new line.

This line, if the application which the company now has before the Public Service Commission is granted, would run from Lancaster avenue, Overbrook, to City avenue, to Wynnewood road, to Penn road, to Aubray road, to Kent road, to Church road, to Thompson avenue, to Merion road, to Wyndham road, to Morris avenue, to Montgomery avenue and return. It is one of the several changes in service proposed by the company which operates the present line from Overbrook to Bryn Mawr via the Montgomery pike.

Wynnewood residents, who declare that they had their first intimations of the new line when they read the story published in this paper last week, were particularly exercised over the proposed route. There was no need for it, they protested. Furthermore, they claimed, buses on these narow thoroughfares would make travel for other traffic extremely dangerous.

A similar stand was taken by Merion residents, who after a taste of Lincoln Highway detour-traffic on narrow Wynnewood road have no liking for the heavier traffic which a bus line would bring. No stand in the controversy has been taken by the Merion Civic Association as no meeting of its directors has yet been held, but residents of the Wynnewood road section were warned by Mrs. Percy H. Matthes, the secretary, and 10 of them appeared before the commission in Philadelphia last week to protest Among them were Messrs. John Lawson, Harry Anderson, Robert Wall and Mrs. Newbold Watson.

In Wynnewood a series of protests were lodged with Commissioner Andrew MacDonald by Arnold Gerstell and property owners of Church road, and by Fred W. Weston, president of the Wynnewood Civic Association.

MOTHER'S MEETING AT J. H. S.

The mothers of children now attending the Junior High School are invited to meet the teachers and principal in the auditorium of the school on Wednesday, October 7, at 3.30 o'clock.

A general discussion of attendance, home study and other matters concerning the welfare of children will form the chief topics of discussion. All who have children in the school are urgently requested to attend this meeting.

BIRTHDAY DANCE

The sixteenth birthday of Miss Anne C. Compton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Compton, 198 Woodbine avenue, was celebrated by a dance last Friday night.

The guests were the Misses Dorothy Speck, Josephine Landis, Mary Landis, Honora Snyder, Helen Farrell, Frances Gibbons and Betty Cook and Messrs. Bob Leitch, Jay Kohlas, Fred Sleck, Elliott Compton, Howard Morris, Charles Campbell, Bill Dothard, Bill Sigel, Amos Flint and John King.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS

The regular monthly meeting of the King's Daughters will be held at the home of Mrs. Hewitt, 116 Essex avenue, on Wednesday, October 7, at 10.30.

It is hoped there will be a full attendance as we have a large amount of sewing ready to be done for the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia.

Lunch will be served at 12.30.

LOST HIS MEMORY

J. Folwell Scull, former Lower Merion star athlete and football captain, was injured Saturday when he saw action with University of Pennsylvania in its opening game with Ursinus. He was kicked in the head and suffered a temporary loss of memory.

He forgot for several hours that there had been a game and was surprised when friends told him he had played. He recovered rapidly, however, and Sunday evening was reported in the best of health.

27 STRAIGHT VICTORIES IS LOWER MERION RECORD

Berwyn High Loses, 14 to 7, in Opening Game of Season.

Lower Merion High School's football team set up what may be an American interscholastic record on the gridiron, certainly an Eastern schoolboy record, Saturday, when the twenty-seventh successive football victory was made. An old-time rival was beaten in the opening of the grid season by the margin of a touchdown, score 14-7.

Lower Merion now holds the enviable record of having won every football game played since 1922, when the sensational streak began, after a 7-7 tie with Berwyn, Saturday's rivals.

This remarkable feat of the gridiron sets a mark at which schoolboys will shoot for a long time. It incidentally is a feather in the cap of Albert Adam, former Bates College player and last year coach at West Chester High. Adam is the new coach at Lower Merion this year and he started his career there in approved fashion.

By no means was Berwyn an easy nut for the Lower Merion eleven to crack. On the other hand, the Main Liners put up a vigorous struggle and staged a comeback in the second half, featuring a well-rounded aerial attack which threatened to throw the game into a deadlock. Coach Tiener had an especially well-rounded Berwyn aggregation on the field, and, led by Captain Summerill, the big fullback, who kept puncturing the Lower Merion defense.

GIRL SCOUTS RESUME MEETINGS

The Girl Scouts of Narberth wish to take this opportunity to thank the members of the Baptist Church for their kidness in allowing us to use their building for our meetings.

The first meeting was held last week and roll call showed 88 present. The troop has been greatly enlarged since last season and there has been some discussion about dividing it. A large majority of the girls did not approve of this and serious thought, on the part of the captain and liteutenant, is being given to the matter. Owing to the enlargement any girl desiring to join should do so as soon as possible.

Mrs. Grace has just been enrolled as assistant lieutenant and we all feel that she will be a great help in the management of the troop.

Our past scout year, largely through the joint efforts of Captain Ruth Nash and Lieutenant Marion Cooke, was even more successful than was expected and we hope to accomplish even more this year.

GOOD FELLOWSHIP CLUB

The first get-together social and business meeting of the Goodfellowship Club of the M. E. Church was held September 24.

A roast ham dinner, was served by the ladies to 36 men, which included several visitors from other churches.

Mr. Durboraw, teacher of the Men's Bible Class of the Ardmore Lutheran Church, delivered a splendid address showing the necessity of holding to the ideals of the founders of our nation lest we fall as did the nations of old. Dr. Chalfont, State Editor of the American Issue, the official paper of the Anti-Saloon League, told of his early experiences in combating the saloon. Mr. Vandling, president of the Presbyterian Church, extended greetings of that organization. Mr. Henry of the same club told of organized Sunday School work.

Meetings of the club are held the fourth Thursday of each month and an invitation is extended to all men of the community to attend.

Connie Mack Sends Two Stars to Narberth Benefit Game Saturday.

HARDT WINS BASEBALL

Narberth folks who got the idea in their head last Saturday that just because the football season opened that day there wasn't any baseball game to be seen, made a big mistake. They missed a good game on the home grounds between Narberth's Main Line Champions and the Main Line All-Stars including none other than our own Cy Perkins and our own Bryn Mawr Jimmy Dykes; they missed an opportunity to contribute to the financial proceeds of the game, which was played for the benefit of Bill Humphries, the former Narberth player who is ill; they missed seeing Arthur McClellan umpire, and, last, but not least, they missed seeing Jimmy Dykes' red flannel shirt. If that isn't an afternoon's worth while-ful we don't know what is.

Before we forget it, Narberth won the game 9 to 4, but that isn't half the story. For instance, there was Fred Walzer's experience at second when Cy Perkins was catching. Fred was all for stopping the game until he found out who it was that was shooting at him with a rifle. But Umpire McClellan pacified Fred by explaining to him that those things he thought were bullets were the balls that Cy was throwing down to Fred to catch the players who were trying to steal second.

Then there was that short but terrific three-handed argument between Umpire McClellan and Pitcher Dykes on one side (by that time Jimmy had been promoted from third base to the pitcher's box) and Epp Yowell. Epp was at the bat, Jimmy was pitching and Arthur was umpiring. Now you have the scene all set for the big climax. Jimmy shot a fast one up to the

WAR NOT OVER

Casualty List Goes On—Narberth Plans Drive.

The September meeting of Harold D. Speakman Post, No. 356, American Legion, held Monday evening, September 28, set in motion the American Legion National $5,000,000 endowment fund campaign in Narberth. The campaign will be concluded during the week of October 17.

While the great war ended on November 11, 1918, the casulty list goes on .

During 1924 over 5000 deaths were officially recorded and certified to by the Government as directly due to war causes.

There are 45,000 war orphans, 5000 of which need help at this time.

These innocent sufferers for the cause of their country are certainly entitled to and must receive the same advantage in life as they would have had their fathers lived. Their country has not and will not fail them now.

Already nearly $4,000,000 of the fund has been subscribed. Narberth will meet its full quota. During the last five years the American Legion has expended over $1,000,000 in this work and it is to place this work on a permanent and assured financing basis that the endowment fund is being provided.

President Coolidge is the honorary chairman of the National Committee, the Hon. William C. Sproul, chairman of the State Committee of Pennsylvania, and Dr. Leroy A. King will be chairman of the Narberth Committee. Never have the Narberth citizens been afforded a better opportunity to express their appreciation of the sacrifice that was so recently made for their country. As we approach the thanksgiving season of the year—a time set aside by our forefathers to give thanks to that merciful providence that has permitted us to live in peace and tranquility, is it not most fitting and proper that we give expression in some small measure of our worldly goods to the care and well being of those little ones who have thmeselves laid such priceless treasure on the altar of freedom?

FAVORS BUS LINES

To the Editor of "Our Town:"

I wish to take this opportunity to suggest that since the councilmen of the borough have tacitly gone on record as favoring the proposed new bus line, which would run along Wynnewood road, and greatly benefit the residents of the south side of the borough, as well as the newer development along Wynnewood road in Merion township, your newspaper could be made valuable in shaping public approval of this franchise.

The addition of a new bus service to the present transportation facilities, together with the proposed improved routes of the present busses, and the pressing into service of larger and better vehicles, seems to me to warrant more support from the residents of the borough than merely a passive interest from having read it in the columns of your paper.

If the commissioners of Lower Merion township as stated, are opposed to the granting of any more franchises for the operation of busses on their highways, it is no doubt because the matter of service and convenience to residents of the south side of the borough of Narberth and in that part of Merion adjacent to Wynnewood road, has not been adequately or forcibly pointed out to them.

Let me go on record as stating that there is not a resident of the south side, I do not believe, who would not do anything in his or her power to bring about a continuation of the present bus service on Wynnewood road.

BOYD TO BE CANDIDATE FOR SENATORIAL TOGA

will be interesting to watch the manner in which the various political factors of the county will line up.

"For months Mr. Boyd has been one of the biggest political enigmas in Montgomery county. Political leaders and workers have realized the former State paigning in every section of the county for more than a year but they have been mystified as to his definite goal.

"A thorough analysis of the political situation has developed these undeniable facts—that he is already in the field, that he has developed strength and that he is grooming himself for a strenuous race for the State Senatorship.

"Political observers hereabouts, although the 1926 primary election is more than seven months in the offing, regard the impending State Senator contest as the most spirited contest in the political cockpit of Montgomery county in next year's campaign.

"This off-year in important elections has failed to furnish the usual smoke screen back of which the maneuvers of the leaders could be made without being discernible to the eye of the party worker and average Mr. or Mrs batter. We don't remember whether Epp struck at it or not but it was a strike anyway, and the umpire announced "You're out!"

Yowell looked as though somebody had just told him that he had been left a million dollars by a cousin that he knew never existed.

"Out?" he shouted at Umpire McClellan and Pitcher Dykes. "How can I be out, that's only the second ball that's been pitched to me!"

Neither Arthur nor Jimmy wanted to do Epp an injustice so they looked in Arthur's right hand where he kept the pennies that denoted how many strikes the batter had. And sure enough, there were "three pennies."

"Three pennies in the right hand—three strikes for the batter," said Mr. Dykes shaking his head sadly. "Must be right—there are the pennies to prove it."

Umpire McClellan was equally insistent that his system of keeping account of the strikes and balls had never failed, and so there was nothing for Epp to do but go back to the bench. He insists, however, that they were the shortest three strikes on record.

Some time around the eighth inning a man wearing brown long trousers, highly polished brown oxfords, a freshly laundered madras shirt, a neat bow tie and dark cap rushed on the field and insisted on playing first base for Narberth. It looked for a while as though there might be trouble until somebody identified the stranger as Jack Jeffries.

"Well, that's all right, so long as it's you," said Gene Davis, as he took a good look at the newcomer, and then handed him the first baseman's glove, "but we don't allow people in citizen's clothes to get in these games as a rule."

And so it went all afternoon, just one exciting happening after another. Cy Perkins got slightly provoked when what he thought was a ball was called a strike and so he hit the next ball pitched so hard that it landed on the foundation wall of the new Community Building over on the northeast corner of the playground and dislocated three large pieces of stone. Bart McCue, even though he hasn't caught another game this season, showed very plainly why it was that he used to be one of the star catchers along the Line. Bobby Hood and Jimmy Dykes "remissed" over old Main Line days every time they met, and everybody agreed that it was very decent and generous of Connie Mack to lend his two stars, Perkins and Dykes, to Narberth for this benefit game.

The new league ball, autographed by Dykes and Perkins, and chanced off—the proceeds going to the Bill Humphries Fund, was won by Bill Hardt, who played a good game in centre field for the all-stars.

Nor should mention fail to be made of George Fleck, who won first place in the "strong arm" contest, being the only player on the two teams to break a bat.

WE NOW PREDICT THE COAL STRIKE WILL LAST UNTIL DECEMBER 1, 1925

If it does, it will mean that no large sizes of coal will be ob'ainable until after that period. Even pea coal will soon be gone.

Perhaps the supply you have will not last that length of time.

We suggest, then, that you order some additional tons of Buckwheat Coal, of which there is plenty, to mix with the larger sizes you have.

You will be surprised how such an addition will lengthen the life of your Coal Supply, and prove effective in heat value, too.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES

The Presbyterian Church.

Rev. John Van Ness, minister.

Meetings for October 4, Rally Day:

9.30 A. M.—Bible School. Special exercises will be held in the new social room, where during the morning the entire school will assemble. For the first time the entire new building will be used and each class will be permanently located. We are fortunate in having a faculty of consecrated and faithful teachers and officers who are planning to make the new year's achievement the best in all our history. All members of the school as well as all others not attached to other schools are cordially invited to make this a great Rally Day in the school and all other church services.

11.00 A. M.—Morning Worship. Special music by the church quartette. Mr. Van Ness will deliver a Rally Day sermon on the subject: "The Gatherers."

7.00 P. M.—Opening meetings of both Senior and Intermediate Christian Endeavor Societies. Special programs are being arranged. Let this be a real rally of all the young people.

Suits made to order, $37.50.

Cannot be duplicated for less than $50.

11.00 A. M.—Morning Worship. Sermon, "The Other One."

7.45 P. M.—Evening Service. Sermon on "Looking to Jesus."

All are welcome to all of these services.

A meeting of Sunday School superintendents and teachers belonging to the various churches along the Main Line and West Chester Pike will be held in the Matthew Simpson M. E. Church, Ardmore, during Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, October 12 to 16. The purpose of the meeting is to give instructions along advanced lines.

EVERYBODY IS COLLECTING TREASURE CHEST COUPONS

Gifts Ranging From Auto to Book to Be Given Away.

Everybody's doing it!

Collecting Ardmore Treasure Chest coupons.

From Sixty-ninth street to the far side of Wayne, there is just one topic of discussion nowadays. Young and old are absorbed in one speculation—who will capture the Buick touring car, and the scores of other desirable gifts to be distributed by the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce?

Although the Treasure Chest itself has not yet arrived in Ardmore, duplicates of many of the gifts it holds are already on display in the show windows of Ardmore's progressive merchants. Among them are many useful, valuable, ornamental and highly desirable objects.

For the men, there are cigars, books, sporting goods, and a host of kindred articles. For the women there are hampers of fruit, baskets of groceries, articles of wearing apparel, household goods, electric lamps and others too numerous to mention. For the boys and girls there is a profusion of delightfully attractive things, including a variety of toys, school supplies, clothing, candy and scores more calculated to make any youngster's eyes dance with glee.

Naturally, interest centres on the Buick touring car. If purchased through the regular channels, it would cost $1260, delivered in Ardmore. Someone who makes a purchase in Ardmore between now and October 29, will get this fine motor car as a gift.

VALLEY FORGE

Last Saturday was a veritable paradise to the 50 men of Narberth, who had made that place their mecca for the afternoon. It seemed as if Lowell's "Perfect Day in June" had been transplanted to September for their especial benefit.

The games and eats were just as advertised—maybe better, but the speeches! Well, the powers-that-be couldn't advertise them in advance. They just had to have some surprise in store for the men. Andy was toastmaster, and our Philadelphia neighbor, Cattell, has nothing on him in that capacity. There was a prize awarded for the best speech, but we amateurs were compelled to compete with Torrey, and that's like bucking Billy Bryan, the "Silver-Tongued." Of course Frederic got the balloon; now what we want to know is whether it was filled with gas or hot air.

A whale of a time is the consensus of opinion, and every one home in the early shades of evening. If you missed this one, get set for the 1926 classic (it's an annual affair) by tying up with the Gara class of the Narberth Presbyterian Church RIGHT NOW. We meet every Sunday morning at 9.30, and we'll sure git you, ef you don't watch out. (With apologies to Riley.)

UNCLE WIP AT BAPTIST CHURCH

By this time there is scarcely a child (or grownup either, for that matter) in Narberth who does not know that Uncle Wip will be the guest of the Church School of the Baptist Church, at the rally day services on Sunday afternoon at 2.15 o'clock.

It is a distinct piece of good fortune to have secured Uncle Wip for this service; we appreciate his coming and extend to him the welcome of church and community.

The church worship services of the day are not without unusual interest. During the week the pastor has completed an every-member-visitation. The morning worship is an every-member-communion service.

The evening worship is the first of the monthly musical services planned for the year. At each of these services there will be at least one well-known artist as guest soloist. The first of these soloists is Bertrand Austin, 'cellist. Mr. Austin will be remembered by those who heard him at the dedication services of the church last November. His selections have been chosen with his usual artistry and appreciation of the worshipful values of music.

The quartet and solo numbers are of equally high standard. Special attention may be called to Bach-Gounod's "Ave Maria" with 'cello obligato and the ever inspiring "Festival Te Deum" of Dudley Buck.

HAVE YOU JOINED?

Library Annual Meeting Monday. List of New Books.

The annual members' meeting of the Narberth Community Library Association will be held in the library next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. This meeting, in reality, is open to all interested persons, because the only qualification for membership is the payment of $1 once a year. Anyone who is not now a member can attend the meeting and qualify for membership by making the payment there.

This is the first members' meeting since the association was organized last spring. The annual report of the librarian will be read and will contain interesting information regarding the growth of the library and the scope of its service. It is important that there should be a good attendance at this meeting simply as a matter of personal support to the group of women who, by their voluntary service five days a week, make it possible for Narberth to have a library.

That is the reason why the Library Association repeats now its appeal for annual members at $1 a year. There are less than 75 such members, whereas more than 400 adults are regular patrons of the library and more than 500 children are being served regularly. The library was started from nothing; there is no endowment; the $500 appropriation of the school board is the only important cash contribution aside from money derived from memberships and the rental of fiction. If it was necessary to pay any salaries or rent, the library could not function at all on its present income.

Narberth now enjoys one of the best libraries on the Main Line because 40 women serve in it free of charge, five days, come rain or shine, every week in the year. Is it asking too much, is it expecting too much, to look to the rest of the adults who patronize the library to contribute only $1 a year?

The following list of books, made available at the library during September, is in itself an ample indication of the extent, variety and timeliness of the library service that Narberth is receiving:

RUMMAGE SALE

For the Benefit of Main Line Federation of Churches.

A rumage sale for the benefit of the Main Line Federation of Churches is to be held at 9 A. M. on Wednesday, October 7, at the store, 13 East Spring avenue, Ardmore.

It is hoped that all those having rumage wil send it to the above address on Tuesday, October 6. Articles of clothing for children and adults, household linen and household furnishings of all kinds, as well as other articles which will be useful to our clients, will be greatly appreciated. This is the first rummage sale held for the benefit of this organization in Ardmore, and it is hoped it will be a successful one.

For those not able to forward their rummage, two trucks have have been offered which will be available to those telephoning to Bryn Mawr 657. This sale is an opportunity for every one in the district to help our social service department, either by giving us articles to sell, or coming to buy the articles on October 7.
